

Donor Privacy Policy

Emerge! Center Against Domestic Abuse respects the privacy of its donors.

Therefore, the organization will not rent or sell personal information about its donors.

It will occasionally allow the controlled single use of its address mailing list by other non-profit organizations with missions compatible to that of Emerge!, in exchange for equivalent use of a similar list of the other organization.

List exchanges will be made for the use of solicitation of new supporters only. Emerge! will exclude the name of any member from any such exchanged list upon request by the member. The Development Committee will review and approve all exchanges.

Adopted by the Development Committee on December 16, 2008.

For more information call (520) 795-8001 or email philanthropy@emergecenter.org.