

Through a broken smile
Darkness had hovered my faith
As if a winter storm came upon my heart
Burning cold
Frost bite to those who came close
Unspeakable mindset
Cruel to most
Pushed, shoved
What's love when a crime was done
Shattered pieces of my life were scattered
Chest closed up, unable to breathe
When I gave up hope
Forgetting still to dream
Wanted to close my eyes
Losing me
Sadden to awake
For no one's to blame
Burdens I must carry
For my past I felt ashamed
Ungrateful for a life of giving
Running to darkness as my soul seemed driven
Dropped to my knees
I begged the almighty, please lord forgive me for my heart knows not what it speaks
Weary my mind grows
Give thy strength to be free
Carry me lord for in my legs I am weak
Pain corroded my beliefs
As your vessel lord, please don't leave me
Shed your light upon me and believe in me
