

Emerge! Staff Thanks You!

Celebrating Safety

Amazed. Inspired. Grateful.

That's how your generosity & support makes us feel.

Please join us in taking a look at how, together,
we have provided hope to survivors in 2015.

5,466

People Received Services

17,194

Safe Nights
Provided

20%

Rise in Need for Services

39

Families with 69
Children Living in Renewal Housing

6,399

Hotline Calls Answered

99%

of Participants
Report an Improved
Sense of Well-Being

109,808

People Reached
During Domestic Violence Awareness
Month

1460

Attended
Community Education Presentations

1,953

Generous Supporters
Gave to Emerge!
Programs

70

Dedicated
Staff Members
Supporting Survivors

6,717

Hours Volunteered
by 273 Amazing
Volunteers

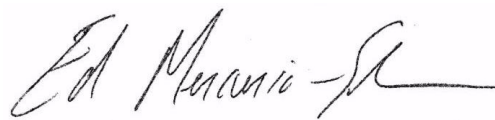

1

EveryONE
Deserves Safety -
[Read Joan's
Story Here](#)

Thank you.

Looking forward to 2016, we are thankful to have dedicated supporters like you by our side. Together, we can keep our community members safe from domestic abuse while supporting and empowering survivors.

With Gratitude,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ed Mercurio-Sakwa". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.

Ed Mercurio-Sakwa, CEO and all of the Emerge! Staff

P.S. There's less than two weeks left to qualify for your

AZ State Tax Credit - Click here for information.

Give Safety. Donate today.